cided to sign the contract. Raymond Lovendale, son of Mr. and Mrs, Theodore Lovendale, was buried from the family residence yesterday afternoon. The interment was in Mt. Olivet. The funeral was well attended by sorrowing friends, and the floral offerings were very beautiful. At the meeting of the Medical Solast evening Dr. Homer read a very able and interesting paper on "The Mi-crocology of the Blood." The lecture strated and the discussion that followed was very interesting. N. G. Franklin, of the firm of Franklin and Hayes bottling works, of Poca-tello, came to Salt Lake last evening to have his eye treated. A soda water bottle exploded in his face and a piece of glass flew in the right eye and cut the ball open. He is here with the hope that sight can be saved. The wheel stelen from A. L. Thomas Sunday, which had been left in front of the postoffice, was recovered yesterday afternoon by Officers Davies and Sper-ry. An old man named Niels Rasmussen was riding the wheel around town, and when taken to the police sta-tion he said he purchased it from a stranger for $10.

The condition of Bishop J. R. Rawlins fords the family some encouragement as compared with that of previous days, is still quite serious. He passed a very bad night, but under the a ministra-tion of opiates, was resting easier this afternoon. Drs. Raucher and Jones are

ARARAMANAAAAAAAAAAAAAAA AMUSEMENTS.

(manness manness manne A third large audience saw the rendition of the "Mardarin" at the Theater last evening. The singers showed the benefit of a day's rest as well as of the two previous performances. Everyone was in better trim except Miss Savage, who suffered from a cold and whose solo had to be omitted. This was made up, however, by the insertion of the merry sextette "Trifles Light as Air," which was omitted on Saturday night, owing to the lack of orchestration. Another 25c. new hit last night was Mr. Campbell's atroduction of a verse on the Governor Velis-Nebeker episode, which was enthusiastically received. Mr. Spencer new "gags" also told, "The Mandarin Ogden will be visited Friday and closing performances will be given here Saturday afternoon and evening. Seats are already selling at a rapid rate for the matinee performance.

If the Grand has ever beld a larger audience than that which assembled last night, it would be hard to tell the occasion. Every inch of standing room above and below was occupied, and it is said that the money results overlapped inything in the previous history of the Black Sheep," which has been done here so often in the past that it might have een doubted as to whether it could se ure any sort of reception again. The out-of-town public, however, came lown in swarms, with many regular atrons of the house, and the result was he crush described. The piece went with the same whirl of merriment as fore, Mr. DeVere, as usual, being the noral figure and being closely second-by Mr. Allen as "Hot Stuff," Among e ladies, the best work was done by iss DeCosta and Miss Beeson, an ex-lient clog-dancer. The same bill runs ll Friday night. Saturday afternoon nd evening the "Vanity Fair" company puts in two performances.
